BASKETBALL TROPHIES

Nancy Bardini—PLAYER OF THE YEAR

are made of this...

Just yesterday we were freshies . . . lost—terrified . . . welcomed by Frosh Day and a Spaghetti Luncheon . . . adopted as little sisters of the Class of '67 . . . sponsored a Spaghetti Dinner on Saint Patrick's Day! . . . became Orientals for "Lute Song" . . . entertained our Big Sisters on Ring Day with "A Bit of Song and Dance" . . . and on Class Night we were sophs.

"The sophomores are like ducks" agreed the faculty in '66-'67 . . . a year of tests, testing, tested . . . a family album and "The Night Before Christmas" highlighted by a dancing Santa and a guilty mouse . . . a Scarlet Hawthorne planted in front of chaplain's residence . . . Marty and Tina as Oliver and Dodger . . . "Where Is Love?" . . . a tearful farewell to the Class of '67—our Big Sisters.

But the following September we were Big Sisters to a new batch of freshies . . . upperclassmen at last . . . the Christmas Prom . . . car washes became contests to see who could get soaked first . . . Viva Roma! . . . OLA rings with 1969—ours! . . . "Happiness Is" with the Class of '71 . . . white carnations . . . apple green and rose . . . Grinder Sale and Field Day—in the auditorium!? . . . the daisy chain on Class Night '68 which figured "69" . . . and then we were seniors.

Seniors with gold ties, initiating the freshmen at the "laugh-At", and a new principal . . . being sold by Betsy at the slave auction . . . "Reach-ing Out" into the darkness at the hootenanny . . . sharing a "Night of Recollection" in 101-102 . . . touring in Washington . . . "37 girls, 2 nuns and one grownup lady" . . . auctioning art works . . . "Senior Switch" on the last day of classes . . . practicing . . . Class Nite . . . Graduation . . .

"But how do I know your answers are right?"

Whistle while you work . . .

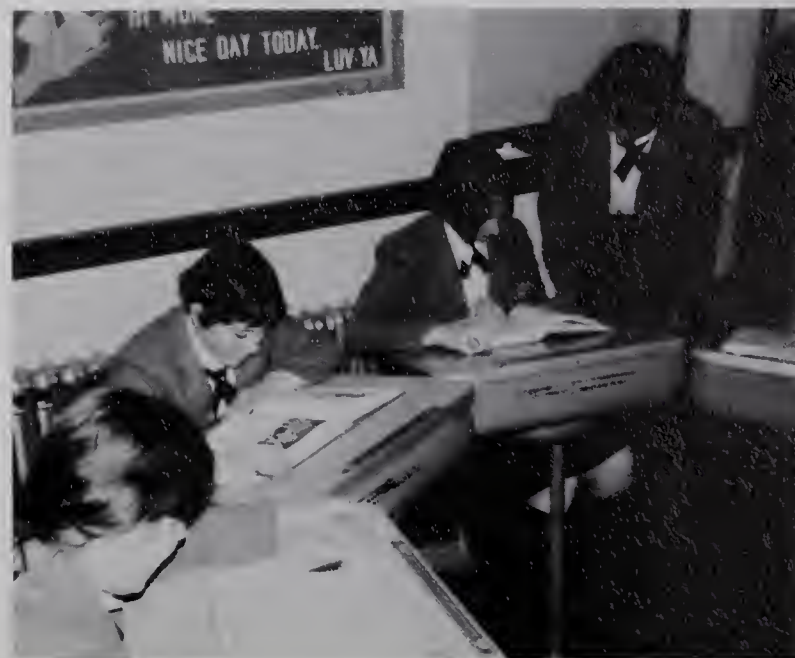

"I haven't done any fingerprinting since kindergarten!"

Up, up and away?

Oaaoh! what a dumb question!

Junior year was . . . having the cloakroom in the "Quiet Zone" . . . glowing upperclassmen with pale blue ties . . . adopting little sisters . . . testing 1,2,3, PSAT, NMSQT, SAT and ACHIEVEMENTS . . . splashing at the car wash . . . encountering Father Matt and Father Charlie . . . wash bottle fights in Chem lab . . . 1970 class rings . . . a single yellow rose tied in mint and dark green . . . "Cherish"-ing Ring Day . . . Drifting and Dreaming at the Farewell Prom . . . accepting the Daisy Chain . . . and a new gold tie.

Sophomore year was . . . S.M. Maurice and Homeroom 201 (again!) . . . wearing navy ties . . . becoming the IMA champions . . . supporting the class with bake sales (that's the way the cookie crumbles!) . . . "You mean I have to touch it?" (bio. lab) . . . taking the NEDT . . . "Habla Espanol?" "Parlez-vous français?" and "Gallia est . . ." . . . "What? No Santa Claus!?" . . . planting a dogwood . . . a tearful farewell to Big Sisters on Class Night.

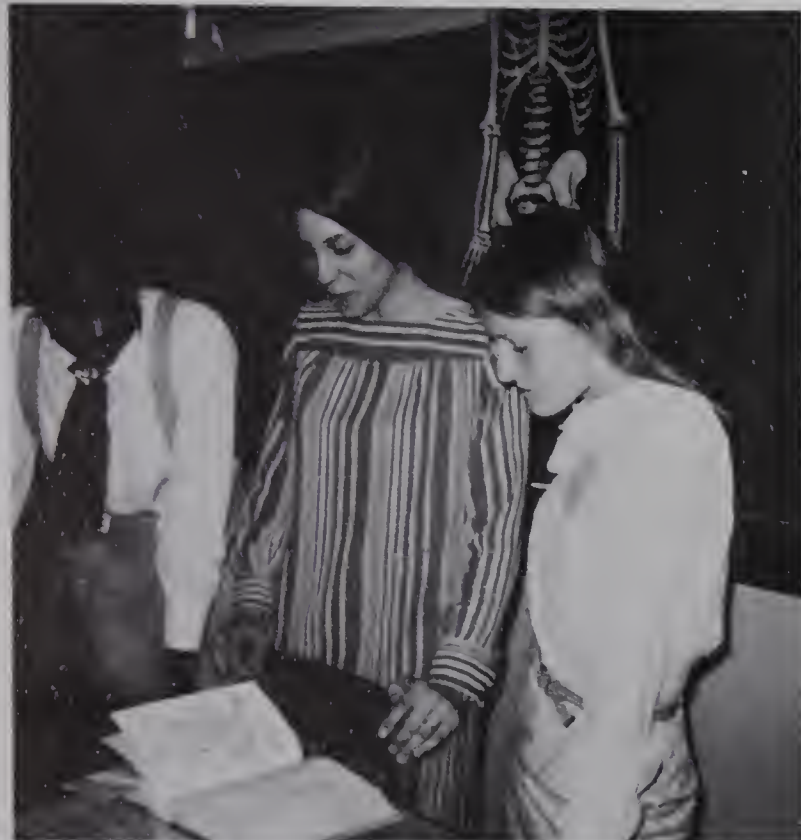

Freshmen year was . . . lost . . . Homeroom 103 and 104 . . . adopting by the class of 1970 . . . "Bright Girl" . . . a tarnished gold tie that takes four years to polish . . . learning to belong . . . "Cherish." . . . raffles, raffles, ah what chance! . . . learning the Angelite Pledge . . . the first of four Class Nights . . . "freshies are like that . . . yeah, they are!"

*People, people who need people
are the luckiest people in the world.*

*We're children
needing other children
and yet letting our grownup pride
hide all the need inside
Acting more like children than children.*

*Lovers are very special people:
They're the luckiest people in the world.*

*With one person,
One very special person,
A feeling deep in your soul says
"you were half, now you're whole"*

*No more hunger and thirst,
but first
be a person who needs people,*

People Who Need People Are The Luckiest People In The World.
